LEGION - AIRE

APRIL 2023

Commander's Column

March was a busy month. We have had great crowds at Bingo on Tuesdays. We are averaging over 90 players a night. The whole bingo team has been working hard to keep things running smoothly. Because of their efforts, we have been able to increase the amount of money the Post deposits by a significant amount. They all deserve a huge round of thanks. The new members initiation was not particularly well attended. Please try to attend next year to meet the new members of the Post and reconnect with the older members. More on this later.

At the general meeting in March, we held an election for Emery's position on the Board of Directors. Chis Martinez was elected and attended his first meeting on March 22nd. The other news of note is that Rich Eldorado has been selected to go onto the ice for the National anthem at the March 30th Blackhawks game. If you are free that night, try to go to the game and support him. The way they are playing, you should be able to get tickets at the box office.

Several of the new members have already volunteered to help us out. We can always use help so if you can volunteer at any time just show up. We will welcome you with arms and not twist your arm to commit to more than you are able.

One final note, we will supply the color guard for the Burr Ridge Armed Forces Day celebration on May 20th. They have an impressive ceremony and everyone is welcome. See you at the Post.

Howard

Auxiliary News - APRIL 2023

“Help Us Grow to Support Our Heroes”

March was a slow month for us but productive. I cancelled our March meeting because I came down with Covid.

Our ladies, Julie, Jean, Kim, MaryAnn, and Joyce did some community service for Good Samaritan Hospital. We also made some pocket flags for the deployed soldiers. We made a delivery to Manteno once again.

I'm happy to announce we had three new applications for Auxiliary membership. Ladies, please plan to attend our April meeting to welcome and meet our ladies.

The nominating committee has wrapped up the nominations as follows:

Sgt. At Arms	Joyce Wilk
Historian	Kim Cruz
Chaplain	Joey Klingbeil
Treasurer	Christine Graves
Vice President	Julie Isenberger
President	Bonnie Wisbrock
Secretary	Jean Krupin

Our bingo workers committee is in dire need of some kitchen help on Tuesday night bingo. If you have the time once a month to help out in the kitchen, we can sure use your help. Call or text me for details.

Board meeting is April 3rd at 6:00 and our regular meeting is April 10th at 6:30. Please join us this month. We will be discussing a September craft show.

Wishing all Happy Easter!!
