Commander's Column

Over the past three months I have written about three of the four pillars upon which the American Legion is based. The last is mentoring youth. There are countless ways we do this. Since we began as a Post we have had a special relationship with the Boy Scouts. Supporting Scouting is a very big part of what we do. Over the past year we have opened up some slots at Boy's State for scouts. This way, we as Legionnaires can teach about the flag, respect for the military and give the youth an opportunity to learn about government first hand. We support Little League and Softball teams. This allows the children to learn sportsmanship. We provide scholarships both in schools and through a selection panel at the Post. This definitely helps to further their studies. We support Downers Grove North's participation where they send children to Washington D.C. to participate in the Close Up Program. In the past we have paid for people who could not afford to travel overseas as a person-to-person ambassador. We have paid to have people travel with a Drum & Bugle Corp. We have our Children's Christmas party every year and we hit the streets of Downers Grove to raise money for the Children's Miracle Network. We donate to local shelters where homeless families can have a safe place to sleep. There is the SAL and Junior Auxiliary Groups. These are part of our American Legion Family just as much as we are.

What do we get for our money? We get healthy, safe, well developed children, to whom if we listen, can teach each of us something that we don't know every day for the rest of our lives. We get better educated, more thoughtful children that support our country and we get to have influence with tomorrow's leaders. We get from them much more that we give.

Now how do we afford the four pillars? One method is through dues. The new Legion year starts in September and the first dues notices have gone out. Please get your dues in soon. As always, if the $35 is an issue please let either Jim Nelson or me know. We do not want the dues fee to be an impediment to any of you retaining your membership in our organization. But again, please get the dues in soon so we can focus on what are important, developing new programs at the Post.

Please be kind to each other- Woody

AUGUST 2009

ONCE AGAIN PLEASE

The Legion year starts on September 1st. That means by now you should have received your annual dues notices. Please send them in as soon as possible. They remain $35/ year. The sooner we reach our target the quicker I can stop harping on getting your dues in. Because of these economic times, we do not expect nor want people to spend $35 on dues when it could go for food, medicine or mortgage. Just let me know and we will cover you until you get back on your feet. We feel that the Legion is very important to all veterans and money should not get in the way.

Last year we had 456 members and we were 96% of our target. In addition I am asking each of you to go recruit one more member for our post. It cost you nothing and helps us when we speak to our elected officials. It would be nice to exceed our goal for the year. Woody

THANK YOU

A big thank you to Ron & Marilyn Czech, Joe Pappalardo and Michele Kawaters for helping at our table at the “Rockin’ for the Troop” concert on Saturday July 18, 2009. The table was manned for five hours and we gave out 300 brochures on the Moving Wall. We were two tables away from one sponsored by the Department of Illinois and next to the US Postal Service who gave us a framed stamps of the Military Services. In addition we got to hear some great music. - Woody

The Pledge of Allegiance:

Pete Tepler gave me a sheet of paper put out by The Knights of Columbus (K of C) that outlined the history of the phrase “under God”. I did not know any of the following; I was only three when the term was added to the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. For those like me let me review from the paper. The Pledge of Allegiance was originated on Columbus Day 1893. God was not mentioned. In 1951 the Board of Directors of the Knights of Columbus adopted a resolution to add the words “under God” In 1952 and 53 The K of C introduced the resolution again. They sent copies to the President, Vice President, and Speaker of the House and to each member of both Houses of Congress. Finally the resolution introduced by Congressman Louis C. Rabaut of Michigan was adopted by both Houses of Congress. The bill was signed by President Eisenhower on Flag Day 1954.

“In August 1954, the Illinois American Legion Convention adopted a resolution whereby recognition was given to the Knights of Columbus as having initiated, sponsored and brought about the amendment to the Pledge of Allegiance: and on October 6, 1954 The National Executive Committee of the American Legion gave approval to that resolution.” Thank you Pete for pointing this article out to me and thank you to the Knights of Columbus for reminding us of God. - Woody

ARE THE MARINES BETTER THAN THE NAVY? ASK THE PEIFFER FAMILY

Congratulations to Alec Peiffer a Post 80 member who recently graduated from OCS at the Marine Base Quantico. Clearly Alec now has something to discuss with his brother, Garrick who graduated from Annapolis a short while ago. By the way both of these fine young men were Boy Scouts that obtained the rank of Eagle. A big Congratulations from Post 80 to Alec and the whole Peiffer family. - Woody

91st Annual Department Convention

Annual Department Convention was held July 8-11, 2009 in Springfield. Delegates were Jack Border, Rich Greenwald and Woody Kawaters. On Thursday morning Kawaters attended an Adjutant Seminar. The minutes of this meeting were shared with the adjutant. Thursday afternoon the 11th District Caucus was held, various committee reports were heard and committee recommendations on resolutions were heard. On Friday the Department met as a whole; most of the morning was dedicated to committee recommendations on the resolutions and votes on issues. The Committee on Americanism had three resolutions, all of which regarded the desire to restore the Oratorical Contest to the old format. During discussions it was pointed out that this contest has had a dwindling number of contestants. All three resolutions were rejected. Under the internal affairs committee there was a resolution to combine the 1st & 2nd Districts. This resolution passed. Under the Legislation Committee three resolutions passed. One asking the DoD to stop selling the rights to the Big Red One symbol for commercial gains. Another supports the Selective Service having mandatory registration of women age 18- 25 years old. The last resolution called upon Congress to increase the per mile exemption for volunteer workers. A copy of all the resolutions and the final outcome are on file with the Adjutant.

The afternoon was dedicated to giving out awards. Of note was the fact that out of the whole Department only one Fire Fighter of The Year was entered. The speakers were interesting but by and large said very little that was new.

Saturday, the Remembrance Service showed that the total of legion, auxiliary, and sons of the legion combined that passed last year was 3,524. Of that amount The Second Division lost 643 people (legion) and 150 women in the Auxiliary. The remembrance service was, as always very reverent.

The Convention book identifies Post 80 and Auxiliary Unit 80 both as being in the top group that gave to Gifts To Yanks Program.

Dick Bernardini won second place (even if they spelled his name incorrectly) in the picture book category.

As with all of the Conventions, talking to the people that we haven't seen in a while was the true benefit. Paul Gardner, who is a past 2nd Division Commander and installed the officers of our Post last year, paid all of you a nice complement by saying that, in conversation with other Legionnaires, Post 80 was identified as one of three nicest Posts in the state. Had a full crew early Saturday morning to pick up what we were to exhibit from the Legion. Then in a 5-car convoy we went to the show area & set up all our exhibits {in a small 10 x10 area!} Sunday opened (6:45 A.M.) with a wind & rain blown tent. Fortunately, all the exhibits had been removed for protection Saturday night!

All day Sunday the wind re-arranged our exhibits, but we managed to make it through the day.

Our efforts got us at least two new members & about 10 persons who took membership applications.

Our tent was from D. G. who also set it up, so our scouts didn't need to help set up this year.

A big "Thank You" to all of our members who helped this year!!

PILLARS

Back in February, Commander Woody asked me to set up some training on the FOUR PILLARS of The American Legion. We ordered material from EMBLEM SALES and after going over the material I found that it really didn't give me much to go on. So I began looking back in the Legion's history.

First you might ask, What are the Four Pillars? They are:

- 1 > A strong National Security
- 2 > Mentoring youth
- 3 > Promoting patriotism and honor
- 4 > Veterans affairs and rehab

These sound simple enough and we practice these every day at Post 80. But where did these ideas come from? At every Post meeting we recite the Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion. In 1919 the founders of The American Legion put the Preamble together after a lot of thought as to its wording and its meaning. The term pillars came into play many years later. Their meaning can be interpreted in many ways, all of which would be correct. When reciting the Preamble, we find all of the "Pillars" within its content. Also last year (April 2008) I put a brief explanation of it in this Newsletter.

I will assume that every member of Post 80 has a copy of our Preamble as all new members are given one when they join. You can also pick one up at Post meetings. The following information appeared in The American Legion Magazine beginning with the July 1940 issue. There was a series of ten articles, each explaining a phrase of our Preamble. Keep in mind that these articles were written by legionnaires who were veterans of the first world war and our country was on the eve of the second world war.

Continued

The first article was written by Anson T. McCook, July 1940.

“We associate ourselves together for the following purposes.”

“TO UPHOLD AND DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA”

There is nothing flabby about The American Legion or its Constitution. Both are active and vigorous. The builders of our Constitution refused to entrust supreme power to any one man. They placed it instead in the hands of many, permitting war to be declared only by Congress - by men and women of our own frequent choosing and directly responsible to the people. In defending the Constitution, we therefore defend our peace and our security.

Our country has been the happiest and most prosperous even in hard times. But our way of life can be lost if it is not protected. Our Constitution allows us to speak freely and openly on issues of national security and the Legion does so. Our representation in Washington shows our government that we are watching what our leaders are doing. As an organization we, The American Legion are not only protecting the rights of every citizen but are also aiding the government in finding and acting on new and better ways to protect the security of our country.

Above all else we must protect our National Constitution, for it in return protects all of us.

This is my interpretation of the first article in the series. I hope you enjoyed reading it

Past commander, Dave Wisbrock.

The Moving Wall

Taken from The Purple Heart Magazine May/June 2009

Voices From The Wall

Our days on earth were forfeited
So liberty could live,

Our fading memory is all that's left
We have no more to give

Though our voices rest in silence
Our spirit does not sleep,

These many names are guardians of
This place where others weep

We thank you for remembering
The costliness of wars,

Our death passed freedoms torch to you
Its burden now is yours

Each day your heart connects with ours
Our souls feel the gain,

Remembrance is our sweet bouquet
We have not died in vain

The Moving Wall is coming to Post 80, 10/1 – 10/5 2009.

Thought-of-the-month:

A recent visit to the FDR residence in New York finds a few interesting quotes from our past President (March 1933 to April 1945):

- >>The hopes of the Republic cannot forever tolerate either undeserved poverty or self-serving wealth. (1941).
- >>When you and I step into the voting booth we can proudly say: "I am an American, and this vote I am casting is the exercise of my highest privilege and my most solemn duty to my country." (1940).
- >>Democracy is not a static thing. It is an everlasting march. (1935).
- >>For all our millions of square miles, for all our millions of people, there is a unity in language & speech, in law & economics, in education & in general purpose, which nowhere finds its' match. (1936).
- >>A sympathetic understanding of fellow man has ever been the hallmark of a leader. (1938).
- >>Better the occasional faults of a Government that lives in a spirit of charity than the consistent omissions of a Government frozen in the ice of its' own indifference. (1936).
- >>Government is competent when all who comprise it work as trustees for the whole people. (1937).
- >>We used up or destroyed much of our natural heritage just because that heritage was so bountiful. (1940).
- >>If we insist on choosing different roads, most of us will not reach our common destination. (1935).
- >>We will not, under any threat, or in the face of any danger, surrender the guarantees of liberty our forefathers framed for us in our Bill of Rights.(1941).
